

I'm an active member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI) as New Mexico Region Illustrator Coordinator. I'm also a member of the Colored Pencil Society of America (CPSA). My illustrations have taken top honors at prominent shows and juried competitions, including Masterworks of New Mexico, the CPSA Annual International Exhibition, SCBWI regional events, as well as being featured in print publications, product design, and packaging.
