

Szilvia was born in 1973 in Berettyóújfalu, Hungary. She attended the Hungarian University of Fine Arts where she graduated in 1997 as a painter and then two years later as a graphic designer. The focus of her interest is the female figure that she has been perfecting since she was a little girl. As an illustrator she works in several styles, her children's book illustrations are kind and cute and her characters are strong. She lives and works in a village near Budapest, and is also a mother to three beautiful children.

• Conventional • Photoshop • Digitally painted •

