info@beehiveillustration.co.uk

I studied Illustration at Loughborough Uni and early commissions included Condé Nast Traveller, Good Housekeeping, Country Living, Homes & Gardens and Trailfinders. My illustrations soon found their way to the wonderful world of book publishing where my artwork has appeared in titles isuch as Dickens novels, poetry books and educational history books on the subjects of London, ancient China, Shakespeare, British history, famous palaces, ancient Greece, castles and famous buildings. I love listening to live music, reading history books and all things illustration.
