Beatrice Bencivenni

info@beehiveillustration.co.uk

Born in Italy, Beatrice earned a degree at the Bologna Academy of Fine Arts and one at the Nemo Academy in Florence (she also got a scholarship, yei!). And so there she is, bend on drawing papers, her nose a few millimetres away from the top of the blue pencil and her head lost in some Pindaric flights, amongst monsters and dragons. If you'd like to follow her on her journey, I don't think she'll complain about it. Meanwhile, you can find her in Dublin, carefully look among the squirrels. She is the one without a tail.
