ILLUSTRATION

info@beehiveillustration.co.uk

I've been illustrating for 14 years now, mainly as a children's illustrator for in-house design studios for big clients like Sainsbury's, Tesco, ASDA, Target and Walmart. I love creating characters that feel real and fun to interact with. I love making people smile and laugh through my illustrations and hope that they do the same when they look at them. My style is bold and colourful—I like to use lots of different textures and patterns in my work. My characters tend to be quirky but fun!
